E. E. Haggard is prepared to do all kinds of jobbing and carriage blacksmithing at the Mixer & Moore Blacksmith Shop, which he has leased.

Cleanliness is absolutely necessary. Some houses must be visited and attended to at once or complaints will be made to the proper officials.

Thursday there was an excursion to Lewiston—Bates' College Commencement. The train left here about six p. m. and returned the same evening.

The Public Library will shortly be opened to the public. Progress has been delayed by the sickness and death of the wife of the president of the association.

If the law against drunkenness is to be enforced it should be done so impartially. Otherwise the enforcement of the law is a big farce and unjust. Will the constable and officers see to it?

J. T. Rowe has added another barber chair to his shavers. He now has three. Wm. Young who is over ninety years old was the first to occupy the new chair for a shave, and Mr. T. G. Stuart held the razor.

M. P. Brooks of Boston was here the first of the week and packed his household goods to move to that city, where he is going to housekeeping. He likes the city very well.

You must have a fine tooth rake to gather up the hay this year as the crop is to be so light can afford to be set. Mason J. Newcomb has a fine full line of rakes, scythes, stones and rifles.

The following are the names of the scholars in district No. 4, not absent one-half day during the term—Bessie Towne, Bertie Towne, Katie Towne, Agnes Shackle, Frank Shackle, Ella Knightly, teacher.

Saturday Elbridge B. Pike was arrested for drunkenness and taken before the Municipal Court. He was fined five days in the County Jail, and officer Blake carried him to Paris Hill to serve out his sentence.

The Norway mill of justice grinds exceedingly fast. For want of a lock-up it is run on the high pressure system and the offenders are made ready for trial in 80 minutes after capture. It's no use, convenience and justice demands for a lobby.

The new uniforms for the Penn. Band set the boys out in big shape and they are just too handsome for anything. The uniforms were furnished by Webb & Wakefield of Norway and are very becoming indeed. This band accompanied the Harry Rust Post to Portland the past week.

You must have good tools or your haymaking will be a task. You will probably be obliged to do some pulling, but should you visit Chas. G. Mason's store you will find the best assortment of hay-making implements in Oxford County. The prices for these goods are lower than last year and his stock to select from is much larger. Call early.

L. W. Fingree, of Worden, Kansas, who went from Norway and settled there in 1858, remembering his native town and wishing to hear from the place and old acquaintances, has subscribed for the ADVERTISER. He has relatives here, and will, doubtless, be well remembered by many of our readers. He promises us some sketches of the early history of Kansas.

Three solid men recently met at Jackson Clark's store whose united weight was 220 pounds. The party consisted of Samuel Briggs of So. Paris 387 pounds; Chas. G. Mason, Norway, over 300; and Mr. Heath of Portland 285 pounds. They were all well and the officers of a SKIN AND BONE SOCIETY.

Abel M. Lombard of Chaffield Minn. visited Norway Wednesday for the first time in 30 years. Mr. Lombard came to attend the reunion at Portland and took the opportunity to visit his old home at Bolster's Mills, from which he had been absent nearly 30 years. Mr. Lombard has been engaged in the hardware business over 30 years in Chaffield.

Last Tuesday the Metropolitan All-Ireland Show exhibited here. The performance was good and gave the best satisfaction. Owing to so many of our people being at the show, the attendance in the afternoon was not large, but in the evening the tent was crowded with enthusiastic spectators. Every performance was done more—was a professional and can make a "hit" every time, and do feats that seem impossible to be done, while the clown keeps the audience laughing. The untamed Cow-Boy from the plains shows you how to handle the six-shooter and the larriat, and tell you of the country and the various kinds of cattle in the west. He performs with the black bear, which he claims to have tamed, and shows you how good natured he is. The show is well worth the 25 cents admission fee, and if seen cannot fail to be appreciated by old and young.

Prof. O. W. Collins and family are home on a vacation.

If you want a nice cigar call at C. H. Noble's. He keeps no cheap goods.

Laundress H. A. Price of the Rumford House was in town Wednesday.

The place to get cooled and refreshed is at the Ocean, Lemonade, etc., is at C. H. Noble's.

S. R. Carter, esq., of Paris, was in Norway Wednesday, for the first time for over a year.

Harry Lane of Norway and Douglas Harper of Oxford were brought before Judge Whitman May 20th charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Lane plead not guilty. After due investigation the court found when to be guilty and sentenced him to five days in Paris Jail. From which finding Lane appealed and gave bonds for appearance at the October term of Court in the sum of $100.00. Douglas was not ready for trial and gave bonds in the sum of $100.00 for his appearance at Court the next day. Douglas failed to put up appearance and his case remains unsettled.

The carpenter work on the Methodist parsonage is finished and the dwelling is now in the hands of the painting. The work has been done to the entire satisfaction of the building committee and all interested. If you want work done with the best of materials call on Frank O. Small. Frost and Lovejoy are doing a fine piece of sodding. This makes the prettiest cottage houses in the village.

There was a hearing before Judge Whitman Monday of this week, on the liquor seized by Deputy Sheriff Bassett at Lord Andrews' on Alpine street in Paris. Sam Westman claimed part of one barrel of cider, and Horace E. Andrews a similar quantity of the same liquor, which had been medicated with winter green, checkered and hops. Mr. Lloyd Andrews did not appear to claim anything. All the liquors were ordered forfeited to the town of Paris, and then were delivered Monday evening to Mr. Mason who is chairman of selectmen at South Paris.

Ludell A. West died of consumption at his parents home in West Sumner on Tuesday. Last February he accepted this office to serve an apprenticeship and remained here some eight weeks. He was a native of West Sumner, Iowa, and his death was a great loss to the community.

Several of our soldiers are at the reunion in Portland.

Irving Becker has cut his foot. Grangers are at work on their hall.

WEST LOVELL.

Reading Circle met with Mrs. Nathaniel Fox, June 18th. A good attendance and a good time, as was to be expected.

Miss Adeline Allard is home from Fryeburg Academy.

A new school house is soon to adorn the Foxboro neighborhood, and the old red building, which has served as a cradle of knowledge for several generations of Foxboro families, must take its turn and "go" like other members of our forefathers' love of membership in buildings; it is to be replaced by a new one.

The hauling at Moravia Stearns' June 8, was quite an event. Seventy-five pairs of oxen drew the team to the road to its destination in a very short time. John Fox had charge of the work and everything passed along without a jar or a hitch.

We have been digesting "S. L. H.'s" story of the minister and have been sorely tempted to let our imagination run riot and make it, but we have a reputation to sustain and are determined to keep truth on our side.

EAST PEAR.

Can some of the readers of the ADVERTISER tell us what is the cause of the tops of onions set out this spring dying after they have grown to about four inches high? They all turn yellow and dry and finally the entire length of the stalk. A number here are so affected. We would like to hear of a remedy.

W. L. Jones is remodeling his house, putting on a piazza, etc. A. M. Johnson is the carpenter.

S. F. Irish expects the painters at once to paint his elegant barn, which were built last fall. Sam killed two old woodchucks at one shot.

The roads are thoroughly repaired and in good order.

The finest piece of corn seen by your reporter belongs to Seth Babb, 8 inches high, good color. He always has the best there is. Seth has sold his valuable family horse, 5 years old, valued $250.

The G. A. R. attended the reunion at Portland.

STOW.

A. Eastman is confined to the house with erysipelas, two of his children are also sick. It is thought that they will have the fever.

Jonathan Emery has a hen who recently layed an egg 7x8. Her eggs average 6x7.

REAR FALLS.

There is a great complaint among farmers about grasshoppers.

There will be a light hay crop in this section.

Mrs. Peleg W. Gerish had a shock of the 20th, which left her speechless.

There has been a fire this week in the swamp above the Falls. It would be well to be careful about fires these dry days.

A deer has been seen in this section lately. By and by they will see a wolf, and have heard say that they follow the deer.

Mumps still hold about here. They are trying to make a clean sweep of them. They are building a number of houses on Porter's side of the river.

The H. C. holds a strawberry festival Thursday evening. A TRAM.

EDEN'S FALLS.

Mrs. M. A. Sand, who has been very sick for a few weeks, is slowly gaining. The rest of our sick are about the same.

Mrs. Edna Galloway and son George are visiting her parents.

Robert Edes and family are occupying his new cottage at the mouth of the Songo, thinking of the health of Mrs. Edes may be better there.

Social dances are held in the pavilion of Mr. Maxfield each week. Music furnished by Claribel and Mrs. Nellie Robinson.

NORTH NEWRY.

Everybody most has gone to Portland. The soldiers of the place that went to Portland are Thomas Powers, C. B. Bartlett, and Samuel Frost.

Geo. Russell and wife have come home after the loss of their young parents and the culture of their farm. They live in Haverhill.

A Remarkable Escape.

Mrs. Mary A. Dailley, of Tunkhannock Pa., was afflicted for six years in a few days with the disease, which time the best physicians could give no relief. Her life was despaired of, until in last October she procured a bottle of Dr. Kline's New Discovery, when immediate relief was felt, and by continuing its use for a short time she was completely cured, gaining in flesh and strength.

Free Trial Bottles of this certain cure of Throat and Lung Diseases at the Drug Store. Large Bottles $1.00.
